Subject: Request for Permission to Seminar on creative writing techniques

Sir/mam

I am writing to request permission to conduct a seminar on creative writing for our 1st and 2nd year students at JBRAC. As an advocate for fostering creative expression among students, I believe that this seminar will greatly benefit our student body.

The seminar aims to introduce students to the art of creative writing by offering interactive sessions, engaging activities, and insightful discussions on various writing techniques, storytelling, and the importance of imaginative expression. This initiative aims to inspire and cultivate a passion for writing among our students, helping them develop their creativity and language skills.

Dates: 15-11-2018 & 16-11-2018

Resource Person: We have invited a certified creative writing instructor Ms. Shakeela with 8 years of experience in teaching creative writing skills has a proven track record of conducting successful workshops and has the expertise to make the learning experience engaging and informative for our students.

We believe that this Seminar on creative writing will be a valuable addition to our student's education, as it will equip them with practical skills that are highly sought after in today's job market. We kindly request your permission to proceed with the workshop and seek your support in making it a successful event.

Thank you for considering our proposal, and we look forward to your positive response.

Sincerely,

At. Chintan

Report on creative writing seminar for 1st and 2nd Year Students by Shakeela

Date: 15-11-2018 & 16-11-2018 Duration: 2 Days

Coordinator – Ar.Chintan

Introduction:

JBR Architecture College organized a two-day seminar on creative writing for first and second-year students, conducted by the resource person Ms Shakeela. The workshop aimed to enhance the students' proficiency in creative writing, a fundamental tool for architectural design and drafting.

Objective :

The two-day creative writing workshop aimed to provide participants with an intensive and immersive learning experience in various facets of creative writing, including fiction, poetry, character development, and storytelling techniques.

Workshop Highlights:

The workshop spanned two consecutive days, encompassing a total of two days of engaging sessions and activities. It was meticulously structured to cover a diverse range of topics, combining lectures, practical exercises, group discussions, and feedback sessions.

Day 1:

1. Introduction to Creative Writing: Overview of different writing forms and the significance of creative expression.
2. Character Development: Techniques for crafting compelling and multi-dimensional characters.
3. Plot Construction and Narrative Elements: Understanding story arcs, pacing, and essential narrative elements.
4. Workshop Exercises: Writing prompts and group exercises to apply concepts discussed.

Day 2:

1. Poetry Writing Techniques: Exploration of various poetic forms, figurative language, and imagery.
2. Editing and Revision Strategies: Methods for revising and refining written work.
3. Group Discussions and Sharing: Participants sharing their work for peer feedback and group discussions.
4. Conclusion and Wrap-up: Recapitulation of key learnings and concluding remarks.

Feedback and Evaluation:

Throughout the workshop, participants exhibited high levels of engagement, actively participating in discussions, completing writing exercises, and eagerly seeking guidance. Feedback collected at the conclusion of the workshop revealed a positive response, with attendees expressing satisfaction with the depth of content covered and the interactive nature of the sessions.

Conclusion:

The two-day creative writing workshop concluded successfully, achieving its objectives of providing comprehensive knowledge and practical skills in creative writing. Participants demonstrated a noticeable improvement in their understanding of writing techniques and expressed enthusiasm for further honing their craft.

We express our gratitude to Ms.Shakeela for sharing his expertise, and we remain committed to organizing such enriching workshops to foster the professional development of our students.

Subject: Permission Request for Nonverbal Communication in Architecture Seminar

Sir/Mam,

I am writing to seek permission to conduct a two-day seminar on "Nonverbal Communication in Architecture" on April 11th and 12th, 2019. The purpose of this seminar is to provide valuable insights to our students about the significance of nonverbal communication in the architectural profession. Through interactive sessions, case studies, and discussions, students will gain a deeper understanding of how nonverbal cues influence architectural design, client interactions, collaboration, and presentation.

We believe that such seminars play a crucial role in enhancing the knowledge and skills of our students, preparing them for successful careers in the field of architecture. Therefore, we kindly request your permission to conduct this seminar on the specified dates.

We are confident that this seminar will be a valuable learning experience for our students, and we are grateful for your support in making it possible. Thank you for considering our request.

Looking forward to your favorable response.

Yours sincerely,

Ar. Esther
Assistant professor

Report on Nonverbal Communication in Architecture for 2nd and 3rd Year Students by Ar.Srilekha

Date: 11-04-2019 & 12-04-2019 Duration: 2 Days

Coordinator - Ar.Esther

Introduction:

The Nonverbal Communication in Architecture Seminar organized by JBR Architecture College on April 11th and 12th, 2019, aimed to provide 2nd and 3rd-year students with insights into the significance of nonverbal communication in the architectural profession. The seminar featured AR. Srilekha as the resource person, leveraging her expertise to enlighten the students.

Day 1 - April 11th, 2019:

The first day of the seminar focused on introducing students to the concept of nonverbal communication and its relevance in architectural practice. The schedule for the day was as follows:

Introduction to Nonverbal Communication AR. Srilekha commenced the seminar by providing an insightful introduction to nonverbal communication, emphasizing its role in conveying messages, emotions, and intentions in architectural design and practice.

Nonverbal Elements in Architectural Design The session delved into the various nonverbal elements present in architectural design, including spatial arrangements, proportions, materials, and textures. AR. Srilekha illustrated how these elements contribute to the overall ambiance and user experience of architectural spaces.

Nonverbal Communication in Client Interaction The seminar continued with a focus on nonverbal communication in client interactions. AR. Srilekha provided insights into interpreting and responding to nonverbal cues from clients, enhancing communication effectiveness and fostering positive client relationships.

Day 2 - April 12th, 2019:

The second day of the seminar focused on practical applications of nonverbal communication in architectural design and practice. The schedule for the day was as follows:

Nonverbal Communication in Collaborative Design AR. Srilekha elucidated on the importance of nonverbal communication in collaborative design processes involving architects, clients, engineers, and other stakeholders. She emphasized the role of nonverbal cues in facilitating teamwork, understanding diverse perspectives, and achieving design consensus.

Nonverbal Communication in Presentation and Representation The session focused on leveraging nonverbal communication techniques in architectural presentations and representations. AR. Srilekha provided practical tips for effectively communicating design concepts, ideas, and proposals to clients, colleagues, and other stakeholders through visual mediums.

Case Studies and Conclusion The seminar concluded with a series of case studies showcasing exemplary use of nonverbal communication in architectural design and practice. AR. Srilekha facilitated interactive discussions, allowing students to analyze and learn from real-world examples.

Conclusion: The Nonverbal Communication in Architecture Seminar organized by JBR Architecture College, led by AR. Srilekha, provided 2nd and 3rd-year students with valuable insights into the significance of nonverbal communication in the architectural profession. Through informative sessions, engaging discussions, and practical examples, students gained a deeper understanding of how nonverbal cues influence architectural design, client interactions, collaboration, and presentation.
